

Secondary French and Italian World Language Teacher posting for 2022-2023

Cardinal Spellman High School, a dynamic, co-educational Catholic High School (9-12) in Brockton, MA., is seeking a full-time World Language teacher, beginning in the Fall of 2022. The candidate must be qualified to teach French courses including French 1- French 4, and Italian 1-Italian 2, at the College Preparatory and Honors levels. At least 2 years experience teaching in a College Preparatory High School setting.

Responsibilities include:

- Instruct students in all aspects of language learning, including speaking, listening, reading, and writing in the target language.
- Positively impact student achievement, using appropriate instructional strategies, and strong knowledge of the appropriate curriculum and content area
- Plan and execute engaging, standards-based lessons and units aligned to the CSHS curriculum guides
- Participate in all aspects of positive culture and community building in the classroom and at school events
- Effectively manage and maintain a safe and supportive learning environment that supports academic risk-taking
- Understand, appreciate and make accommodations for diverse student needs and learning styles
- Participate in professional development for continuous learning
- Work collaboratively with colleagues to create an environment of mutual respect and appreciation for all members of the school community

Successful Candidates Demonstrate:

An understanding of, commitment to, and appreciation for a Catholic, co-educational environment and the mission and core values of Cardinal Spellman High School.

A mindset that supports the academic progress and social-emotional growth of all learners, demonstrating a commitment to student success.

Strong interpersonal, collaboration, communication, and motivational skills

Cultural competence in working with diverse populations

Understanding of how bias affects families and knowledge of how to provide support to ensure success for all students

Ability to analyze, problem-solve, and multi-task, managing multiple priorities and adjusting as needed.

Highly organized approach with a strong standard of professionalism, accountability, and customer service.

Welcoming, thoughtful, and energetic attitude with a sincere commitment to collaborative work.
