

St. Mary's School in Brookline, MA is looking for an English Language Arts teacher! Job requirements include:

- Demonstrate knowledge of subject area.
- Establish clear objectives for all lessons, units, projects, and communicate these objectives to students.
- Plan instruction based upon explicit goals regarding what students should know and be able to do.
- Create or provide learning experiences that develop students' abilities and require the application of thinking skills.
- Employ a variety of instructional strategies that consider individual learning styles and performance levels.
- Organize instruction around essential questions or core learning objectives; teach for understanding and/or mastery; provide students with practice and extension opportunities as needed.
- Assess student learning on a regular basis using multiple forms of assessment; provide reports of student progress as needed.
- Use assessment data to inform instruction.
- Create a classroom learning environment that is engaging, orderly, secure and appealing for students and in which mutual respect is shown.
- Carry out the school's disciplinary code and procedures in a fair and just manner.
- Give assignments that reinforce classroom instruction.
- Communicate student progress and development to parents.
- Participate in professional growth opportunities.
- Model learning and behavior consistent with the expectations for students.
- Attend staff or team meetings and serve on staff committees as necessary.
- Collaborate with colleagues to improve curriculum and instructional effectiveness for all students.

If interested, please send your resume and cover letter to Dr. Christine Nadjarian at cnadjarian@stmarys-brookline.org