

High School Theology Teacher '22-'23

Saint Joseph Prep, a Catholic, co-educational, college preparatory high school sponsored by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Boston, seeks an exceptional educator to join the Theology Department for the 22-23 school year.

About Saint Joseph Prep

Saint Joseph Prep's culture is defined by Academic Excellence, Authentic Community, Meaningful Engagement, and Dynamic Innovation. These pillars are at the heart of all that we do to provide students with an exceptional high school experience that not only prepares them for success in college, but also develops them into courageous, compassionate leaders. Saint Joseph Prep offers an extensive athletic program, vibrant extra-curricular and service opportunities, small class sizes, an Academic Enrichment Center, Chapel Speaking and Advisor Programs, and individualized college counseling.

Skills and Competencies

A passion for teaching and learning is essential. The successful candidate actively engages students with a thoughtful, creative mix of dynamic, rigorous, and student-centered instruction. Strong interpersonal skills, along with excellent oral and written communication skills, are critical. Previous teaching experience is preferred. The candidate will be expected to embrace the core mission of the School, serve as an academic advisor, and contribute to the extra-curricular life of the school. Additionally, the candidate should have an interest in fostering the faith life of students through participation in retreats and service opportunities. Saint Joseph Prep seeks candidates who will contribute to and are committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion practices.

Application Instructions

Interested candidates should send a cover letter, resume, and list of professional references to Scott Poponyak, the Assistant Head of School for Academic Program at scott.poponyak@saintjosephprep.org.
