

St. Anthony School, a small Catholic school in Everett, seeks a full-time sixth-grade teacher for the 2022-2023 school year.

Preference is given to individuals with prior teaching experience.

Duties include:

Sixth-grade homeroom teacher

Teach 6-8 literature and social studies

- Plan and facilitate lessons that align with State Standards
- Communicate and collaborate with parents
- Collaborate with school leadership and middle school team teachers.
- Plan cooperatively with professional staff
- Assess students as necessary using different modalities
- Prepare Intervention instructional lessons based on data
- Manage classroom behavior with positive interventions that motivate students and limit disruptions.
- Communicate with individual students' support stakeholders as needed
- Incorporate Social Emotional Learning standards and curriculum that promote self-confidence, team-building, and informed decision making
- Performs other related duties as assigned.
- Administer MAP testing assessments and utilize available data to make instructional decisions that target the academic needs of students.
- Collaborate with guidance counselors to refer students who are in need of Social-Emotional support
- Understanding of Catholic education is beneficial